

TOUO COLLEGE

School of Education and Psychology
Graduate Education and Special Education
946 Kings Highway
Brooklyn, NY 11223
Telephone: 718-301-2031 Fax: 718-627-3684

School of Education and Psychology
Graduate Education and Special Education
43 West 23rd St. (Office 301)
New York, NY 10010
Telephone: 212-463-400, ext. 797 Fax: 212-462-4889

Professor Jeffrey H. Dicker, Director of Student Teaching

Eileen Leibowitz, Assistant Director of Student Teaching

683

SpEd683: Practicum II

Early Childhood Special Education, Birth-Grade 2

Some Issues of Particular Importance in Working with Young Children

1. What kinds of activities have you used to provide the young children with whom you have worked the opportunity to solve problems of different kinds?

2. What methods and materials have you used to appeal to various learning styles and modalities? Were any of them particularly effective or ineffective?

3. Which typically early childhood behaviors or problems have been more difficult for you to deal with than others? How do you plan work on these difficulties?

SpEd683: Practicum II
Early Childhood Special Education, Birth-Grade 2 (page 2)
Some Issues of Particular Importance in Working with Young Children

4. What did you learn about creating a safe, comfortable, and appropriately stimulating environment for young children that you did not know before doing your Practicum II course?

5. What did you learn about creating an emotionally safe and secure environment for young children that you did not know before doing your Practicum II course?

6. What are some of the ways you have learned to build constructive relationships with parents of young children with whom you work?
